Dear Mr. Johnson:

It is my distinct pleasure to commend you on the Anniversary of your 50 years of service. The work you do improves the quality of life for many of our citizens. Thank you for your diligence and perseverance in protecting individuals' rights. Not only are we better now for your work, but you will continue to improve the lives of Kentuckians for a long time in the future. Thanks again.

Sincerely,
